From Saturday November 9. to Tuesday November 12. 1745.

St. James's, November 12.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Litchfield and Coventry, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Litchfield and Coventry, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Litchfield and Coventry,

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Litchfield and Coventy, in a deep Senſe of our inviolable Obligations of Duty, and the warmeſt Gratitude for all the Bleſſings we derive from your Majeſty's paternal Care and Protection of us; and likewiſe under juſt Apprehenſions of the preſent dangerous Situation of the Publick, the Happineſs of which is inſeparable from that of your Majeſty; do humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and to declare, by this ſolemn Teſtimony, our utter Deteſtation and perfect Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion that has broke out, and is now carrying on, by ſome of your deſperately wicked Subjects in Scotland, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to the Crown of theſe your Kingdoms: An Attempt, that, if ſucceſsful, (which may God avert!) muſt unavoidably involve our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, in abſolute Ruin, and terminate in the Triumphs of Popery and arbitrary Power over theſe Free and Proteſtant Nations.

On ſo very important an Occaſion, we not only think it our bounden Duty to renew our publick Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's juſt and rightful Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, but likewiſe we moſt ſincerely aſſure your Majeſty that, as your faithful Subjects, we will do all that lies within our Sphere, and becomes our Profeſſion and Character, to defeat the flagitious Enterprizes of your Majeſty's and our Enemies. And as we are Miniſters of that God by whom Kings reign, we ſhall not fail to uſe all our Opportunities of diſabuſing any deluded Perſons that may happen to be found under our Inſpection, and of infuſing into them the Principles and Practice of a legal and Chriſtian Obedience to your Majeſty, by our Examples, our Inſtructions, our Prayers, and all our Influence; ſuch an Obedience, as is moſt juſtly due to the profeſſed Defender of our holy Faith, and more eſpecially to the gracious Protector of the Eſtabliſhed Church, and all its Rights; in the Preſervation of which the whole Body of your Clergy is more immediately intereſted and more deeply concerned.

We likewiſe truſt, that, by God's Aſſiſtance, we ſhall effectually promote your Majeſty's Service, by exerting our utmoſt Efforts in ſtemming the Torrent of all that Vice and Impiety that are broke in upon us; which naturally tend to the Diminution of the Dignity and Reverence of all Government, and in the laſt Reſult of Things, prepare the Way even for the Return of Popery itſelf.

And we farther aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall not ceaſe to offer up to Heaven our moſt ardent Prayers, and to engage all thoſe with whom we are concern'd, to join heartily with us in the ſame, that the wiſe Diſpoſer of all Events will direct your Counſels, and the ſupreme Lord of Hoſts will intirely diſappoint the pernicious Attempts of all your Enemies, however aſſiſted they may be by any Powers abroad, or encouraged by any falſe and ungrateful Subjects at home; that he will clothe them with Shame and Confuſion, and cauſe the Crown long to flouriſh on your Majeſty's Head; and likewiſe, that he will eſtabliſh the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe in all future Ages, as the firmeſt Foundation of the Security of our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town of Shrewſbury, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Kinaſton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town of Shrewsbury.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of this ancient Corporation, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your happy and ſafe Return to theſe your Kingdoms.

We want Words ſufficiently to expreſs our juſt Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion lately broke out, and ſtill carried on by many traiterous Perſons in Scotland, in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender to your Crown and Dignity.

We cannot therefore omit this publick Occaſion of aſſuring your Majeſty, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, that we will, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, exert ourſelves in the Defence of our moſt happy Conſtitution, and the Cauſe of Liberty.

May Heaven protect your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, defend the juſt Rights of your auguſt Houſe to the Crown of theſe Realms, and unite the Hearts of all your Majeſty's Subjects in a firm Reſolution to act with a Spirit becoming a Time of Common Danger, and with ſuch Vigour, as will end in the Confuſion of all thoſe who have engaged in or fomented this Rebellion.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty eighth Day of October, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, Clergy and Common Council of the Borough of Bodmyn in the County of Cornwall, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John La Roche, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, Clergy and Common Council of the Borough of Bodmyn.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt ardent Zeal for the Preſervation of your moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, of our deep Senſe of the Felicity we enjoy under your moſt wiſe, equitable and auſpicious Adminiſtration, and our utter Deteſtation and Abhorrence of all Attempts to deprive us of ſo ineſtimable a Bleſſing. We ſhall ever aſſiduouſly implore the Continuance of the ſame Divine Providence and Protection, that hath ſo conſpicuouſly attended your paſt Endeavours for the Welfare and Tranquillity of theſe Kingdoms; and doubt not, but that the execrable Views of ſome Men, who, founding their Fortune on Rapine and Devaſtation, hope, by ſubverting our preſent happy Conſtitution, to accompliſh their Deſigns under the Umbrage of an arbitrary Government, will be defeated by the Vigilance and Activity your Majeſty hath ever exerted for the publick Welfare; and their late unparalleled Attempt to ſubvert us to a foreign Yoke, will terminate in an additional Security to the preſent Eſtabliſhment, by exciting a proportioned Zeal in the Minds of all true Lovers of their Country, for the Preſervation of their Rights and Liberties, which we are ſenſible are ſo inſeparably connected with your Majeſty's Government, that there is no Danger but we would chearfully expoſe our Lives and Fortunes to in the Defence of it.

Given under the Seal of our ſaid Borough, this Twenty fourth Day of October, 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorcheſter, in the County of Dorſet, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Brown and Nathaniel Gundry, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorcheſter in the County of Dorſet.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, truly ſenſible of the Liberty and Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt mild and auſpicious auſpicious Reign, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the unnatural and daring Rebellion carried on in Scotland, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Crown.

The dangerous Influence given to this Attempt upon our civil and religious Rights, by the Enemies of the Liberties of all Europe, convinces us how heartily your Majeſty's Subjects ought to unite towards defeating their wicked Deſigns. We therefore beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady Reſolution to join with your loyal Subjects, in the moſt effectual Meaſures in our Power, in the Defence of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and in Support of the Proteſtant Religion and Conſtitution of this Realm, againſt the Pretender and all other Invaders.

That the Almighty may bleſs your Majeſty's Arms with Succeſs againſt all your domeſtick and foreign Enemies, are the ardent and ſincere Prayers and Wiſhes of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Twelve Men and Freemen of the Corporation of Great Grimsby in the County of Lincoln, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Robert Knight and William Lock, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To our moſt Gracious Sovereign.

WITH Hearts as warm, and a Zeal equal to any of your Majeſty's Subjects, we the Mayor, Aldermen, Twelve Men and Freemen of the ancient Corporation of Great Grimsby, beg Leave to pay the Compliments of our Duty and Loyalty on this Occaſion, when Part of your Subjects in Scotland are raiſing and ſupporting an unnatural Rebellion in Favour of a Perſon and Family bred up at Rome, and conſequently the avow'd Enemies of our Civil and Religious Liberties.

Our Surprize ariſes ſtill higher at this Behaviour, when we can look back with Pleaſure, that ſince the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family, not the leaſt Abuſe or Attempt has been made towards the Diminution of thoſe invaluable Privileges we have always enjoy'd; and we doubt not, but from the glorious Spirit diffuſed through this Part of your Kingdom, that any Inclination to diſturb our Quiet here, muſt be ſuppreſs'd and fail, and where Rapine and Confuſion now prevail, your Majeſty's Meaſures will, we flatter ourſelves, take Place to the Reeſtabliſhing the Peace there, and the juſt Puniſhment of thoſe Wretches who have contributed to the Ruin of their Country.

On our Part, we ſhall be glad to do all in our Power to ſupport your Majeſty and the Succeſſion in your Family, as the only Means of Happineſs to us and our Poſterity.

Given under the Seal of our Borough, this Twenty-ninth Day of October, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty-five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Beverley in the County of York, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Charles Pelham, Eſq; and Capt. William Strickland, their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Beverley in the Eaſt Riding of the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects do, with the greateſt Sincerity, congratulate your Majeſty on your ſeaſonable and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and alſo for the Succeſs of your Arms in taking that important Fortreſs of Cape Breton; and beg Leave, on this trying Juncture of Affairs, to repeat the Aſſurances of our moſt inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and to expreſs our warmeſt Indignation againſt all Attempts to diſturb it.

An Invaſion in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, animated with the Hopes of Aſſiſtance from the Powers of France and Spain, is reflected upon with uncommon Abhorrence by your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, who all know, and are very ſenſible, that the Religion to be introduced by this intended Change, is founded in Abſurdity and the groſſeſt Superſtition in the Church, as well as a Tyrannical and Arbitrary Government in the State.

The Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, in the full Enjoyment of our Laws and Liberties, can receive no Addition by any Change; but the Miſeries evidently conſequent on that now endeavour'd to be introduced by the moſt unnatural Rebellion in the North Parts of this Iſland, would, if effected, entail upon us and our Poſterity the moſt abject Slavery, not to be endured by a free People,

ple, who have been long accuſtomed (by the Bleſſing of God) to be governed by the known Laws of the Land: And we crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be ready at all Times to ſacrifice all that is dear and valuable to us in Support of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, in Oppoſition to all ſuch wicked and deſtructive Schemes.

That your Majeſty may enjoy a long and proſperous Reign over a free and happy People, are the hearty and ſincere Prayers of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Given under our Common Seal the 7th Day of October, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leomynſter in the County of Monmouth, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, Knt. and Thomas Morgan, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Capital Burgeſſes of your ancient and loyal Borough of Leomynſter, beg Leave to tranſmit to your Majeſty, by the Hands of the Hon. Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, our High Steward, our moſt hearty Congratulations on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and on the happy Succeſs of your Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton.

We cannot avoid expreſſing, at this Time, our ſincereſt Thankfulneſs for your Majeſty's conſtant unwearied Endeavours to promote the Welfare of all your Subjects, and our Amazement withal, that any of that Number ſhould be found ſo forgetful of their Duty, as to renounce that Allegiance they owe to your Majeſty, or ſo unmindful of their true Intereſt, as to have taken up Rebellious Arms in Favour of a Pretender to the Crown of theſe Realms, whoſe Claim has been ſo often ſolemnly abjur'd, as threatening all that Ruin, which may ſurely be expected by a Proteſtant free People, from Popery and Arbitrary Power; two the moſt dreadful complicated Evils, which Superſtition and Tyranny can devolve on Mankind.

In this critical Conjuncture, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, and in Support of your Government; a Government founded on the Baſis of that Civil and Religious Liberty, which is infinitely dear to us, and which we fervently pray may be continued to us and our Poſterity, under a Race of Princes of your illuſtrious Houſe, emulous to imitate the great Example you ſet them, of making the Happineſs of your People the only Aim of your Ambition, and the Glory of your Reign.

To which humble Addreſs we have cauſed the Common Seal of our Borough to be affix'd this 8th Day of October 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Capital Inhabitants of the Corporation of Graveſend and Milton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Darnley, their High Steward, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Capital Inhabitants of the Corporation of Graveſend and Milton, in Common-Council aſſembled.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Mayor, Jurats, and Capital Inhabitants of the Corporation of Graveſend and Milton, humbly beg Leave to give your Majeſty the warmeſt Aſſurances of our Duty and Fidelity, due from a People that enjoy all the Bleſſings they can wiſh under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government.

We heartily congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your Negociations in Germany, in ſecuring to the Houſe of Auſtria the Imperial Dignity.

Duty as well as Gratitude animates us (who have received ſuch ſpecial Marks of your paternal Goodneſs) to expreſs our Abhorrence of this inſolent Rebellion broke out and carried on in Scotland in Favour of a popiſh Pretender; and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, we will, to the utmoſt of our Ability, ſupport your Majeſty's juſt Title to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms.

May the Divine Providence protect your ſacred Perſon; aid your Councils; bleſs your Arms; grant you a long and happy Reign over us, and continue the Crown in your Royal Houſe, ſo long as this ſhall continue a Nation.

Oct. 26, 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town of Ipſwich in the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Edward Vernon and Samuel Kent, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, liament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town of Ipſwich in the County of Suffolk, beg Leave to join in the general Joy, which fills the Hearts of your loyal Subjects, for the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms at Cape Breton, the happy Influence of your Councils Abroad, and your ſafe Arrival in theſe your Dominions.

Permit us, Sir, at the ſame Time, to repreſent our great Concern, and the juſt Abhorrence we have againſt the wicked and traiterous Attempts of thoſe ungrateful and Rebellious People, who, in open Violation of the Laws, and in Defiance of the moſt ſolemn Oaths and Obligations, are now in Arms againſt your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, the Intereſts and Stability of which are ſo happily connected with every Thing that is valuable to us, as Proteſtants, Engliſhmen, and Free-born Subjects, that, without a due Regard and Obedience to the one, we can have no Safety, no Security for the other.

Fired therefore with a juſt Indignation at the raſh and daring Attempt, which is now carried on againſt your Majeſty (ſupported as it is by that proud and imperious Monarch the French King, avowed Enemy to this our happy Conſtitution) we cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Deteſtation for ſuch horrid and unnatural Deſigns, as would ſubject us again to Bigottry and Arbitrary Power, fill theſe happy Kingdoms with Blood and Deſolation, and make them a Scene too black and diſmal for any, but the cruel Mercies of modern Rome to behold without a Tear, againſt which we are determin'd to defend your ſacred Majeſty and your Government, with all that is dear and valuable to us.

May the Almighty go forth with your Fleets and Armies, and his Providence concur in their Succeſs, that ſo your Majeſty may teach an obſtinate and Rebellious People that Obedience which is due and chearfully paid by all (that are ſenſible of the Bleſſing) to ſo good a King; and that after the preſent impending Storm is diſperſed, and the pernicious Seeds of Popery and Superſtition rooted out and deſtroyed, your Majeſty may finiſh your Reign in Peace, which you have with ſo much Glory to yourſelf, and Happineſs to your Subjects, hitherto maintain'd; and our lateſt Poſterity ſhall with Pleaſure tell, how George the Second reigned, and how his People loved him.

Given under our Common Seal of our Corporation at Ipſwich aforeſaid, this 23d Day of October 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Stafford and Warwick, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Weymouth, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Stafford and Warwick, having a deep and true Senſe of the wicked Attempts made againſt your Majeſty, your Royal Family, and the whole Nation, as well as the Proteſtant Religion, at this Time, by a moſt horrid Rebellion, aided and aſſiſted by France and Spain, moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government in Church and State; and that we will, at all Times, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, ſtand by and ſupport your Majeſty, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Family, as by Law eſtabliſhed, againſt the Pretender and his Adherents, and all Princes, States and Potentates, who ſhall dare to invade this Realm.

Given under the Seal of the ſaid Borough, at our Common Hall there held, the 24th Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, with the reſt of the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Glanville and Thomas Hales, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Houſhold: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, with the reſt of the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe in the County of Kent.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, with the reſt of the principal Inhabitants in the Town and Port of Hythe aforeſaid, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in this Kingdom, and on the Birth of another Prince in your Royal Houſe, for under that alone can we hope to enjoy our Religion and Laws, or any Thing that is valuable to Engliſhmen. We beg Leave alſo to aſſure your Majeſty of our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of this unnatural Rebellion in Favour of a popiſh Pretender; and that we are armed, by Direction of our Lord Warden, and ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Town and Port of Hythe, this 4th Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, principal Burgeſſes, and other Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorſet, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Raymond and John Tucker, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, principal Burgeſſes, and other Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis in the County of Dorſet.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects ſhould deem ourſelves inexcuſable, if, in this Seaſon of general Alarm, we did not give your Majeſty Teſtimonies of our unalterable Fidelity and Attachment.

We therefore beg Permiſſion to preſent our moſt humble and ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty, on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, as well as on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in America, and of your Negociations and Influence in Favour of the Houſe of Auſtria; and alſo to expreſs our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion raiſed in Scotland in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, a ſervile Dependant on France, the conſtant inveterate Enemy of theſe Kingdoms, and a bigotted Vaſſal of Rome; Qualities that muſt render him hateful to all but the wretched Advocates for Popery and its ſlaviſh Concomitants.

We further beg Leave, with all Humility, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are determin'd, with a Zeal equal to the warmeſt of your moſt faithful Subjects, and at the Hazard of all that is dear or valuable to us, to ſupport and defend your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, againſt this Pretender and all his Adherents, being truly ſenſible, that we have no other Security for our happy Conſtitution, and the Continuance of our Civil and Religious Rights, but the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe.

The following Addreſs of the Mayors, Capital and Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Boroughs of Eaſt Looe and Portbyhan, in the County of Cornwall, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Charles Trelawny and Francis Gaſhry, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament, for Eaſt Looe, and Benjamin Keene and John Frederick, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for Portbyhan, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayors, Capital and Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Boroughs of Eaſt Looe and Portbyhan, otherwiſe Weſt Looe, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayors, Capital and Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Boroughs of Eaſt Looe and Portbyhan, otherwiſe Weſt Looe, in the County of Cornwall, humbly congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Conqueſt of Cape Breton, a Place of great Importance to the Trade of this Nation.

We beg Leave alſo, at this important Juncture, when a moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion is begun and carried on in Favour of a popiſh and abjured Pretender, to expreſs our utter Deteſtation of popiſh Superſtitions and arbitrary Power, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Fidelity and Loyalty to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

Senſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, we are moved with the high-

eſt Indignation at the pernicious Deſigns of our Enemies to rob us of theſe Bleſſings, and are unanimouſly reſolved and ready to defend our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and to ſupport your Majeſty's moſt juſt and undoubted Title to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, to the utmoſt of our Ability, againſt the Pretender, and all his Adherents and Abettors whatſoever.

That Divine Providence may proſper your Majeſty in all your Concerns for the publick Good; influence your Counſels; unite the Hearts of all your Subjects; give Succeſs to your Arms by Sea and Land, and reſtore us to the Bleſſings of Peace and Proſperity, is the conſtant and ardent Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Guild-Stewards and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Calne in the County of Wilts, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Colonel William Elliott and Walter Hungerford, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Guild-Stewards and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Calne in the County of Wilts.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Guild-Stewards and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Calne, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Return to theſe Dominions; the glorious Succeſs of your Endeavours for the Freedom of the Holy Roman Empire; and your advantageous Acquiſitions in North America.

The Interruption of our Peace at Home, by an unnatural Rebellion in Favour of an abjured Pretender, is ſuch an Inſult to your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, and ſo deſtructive of every Thing that is valuable to Engliſhmen and Proteſtants, that we can't expreſs our Reſentments of it with adequate Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence. We deſire therefore to renew our ſolemn Aſſurances, that as we are bound by all the Obligations of Gratitude and Intereſt, ſo will we, with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, unite with the moſt forward of your happy Subjects, in Defence of your Royal Perſon and Family.

The preſent Proteſtant Succeſſion is our only Safety: We can be no longer a free People, or true Chriſtians, than whilſt we are under that Protection. May you therefore, moſt Gracious Sovereign, long continue that Happineſs to us; and may there never be wanting one in your Royal Houſe to tranſmit it to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given at our Guildhall, under the Common Seal of the Borough, the 5th Day of November 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and Liberties of Colerain in the County of Londonderry, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and Liberties of Colerain in the County of Londonderry. The 24th Day of September 1745.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and others Inhabitants of the Town of Colerain in the County of Londonderry, being filled with the higheſt Indignation at the raſh and daring Attempts of a popiſh and long abjured Pretender, beg Leave to give your Majeſty the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances, that we will be ready, upon this and all other Occaſions, to ſacrifice all that is dear and valuable to us, in Defence of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and in Support of your Majeſty's Government, on which, under Providence, depends the Preſervation of every Good that can be wiſhed for by Britiſh Subjects and Proteſtants.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town of Carrickfergus, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Town of Carrick-

Carrickfergus (otherwiſe called Knockfergus) have too juſt a Senſe of the many great and valuable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's prudent Adminiſtration, to omit this Opportunity of approaching your Royal Perſon, and of congratulating your Majeſty upon your ſafe Return to your Regal Dominions, and the Succeſs that has attended your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of the important Iſland of Cape Breton.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, Dread Sovereign, to expreſs our utmoſt Deteſtation of every Attempt made in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, by either the open and profeſſed Enemies of your Majeſty and your Kingdoms, or ſuch pretended Subjects as are not to be reſtrained by any religious Obligation, from declaring in Favour of a Perſon they have abjured, or kept in Loyalty by the Wiſdom and Clemency of your Majeſty's Government, under which they have been ſo happily protected.

Under your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe we can only hope to ſecure to Poſterity the free Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights; and we beg Leave in Return to give your Majeſty the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of our Readineſs to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Royal Perſon and Family.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the Seal of our Corporation to be hereunto affixed, this Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

The following Addreſs of the Sovereign, Free Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Belfaſt, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Free Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Belfaſt, beg Leave moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and to expreſs our unfeigned Joy for the Almighty's Bleſſings on your Majeſty's Arms, in the Reduction of the Iſland of Cape Breton; a Place, by its Situation capable at once, under your Majeſty's wiſe Adminiſtration, of annoying the Plantations of your Enemies in America, and ſecuring the Trade of your Britiſh Subjects.

We cannot at the ſame Time omit ſhewing our Abhorrence of the traiterous Practices of thoſe rebellious Subjects, who, forgetful of their being in the full Enjoyment of their Religious and Civil Rights, during the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's Reign, have promoted an unnatural Rebellion in the Kingdom of Great Britain, and, in Defiance of all Obligations both human and divine, have choſen to take up Arms againſt the beſt of Kings, and fight under the Standard of a popiſh and abjured Pretender.

For our Parts we beg Leave to give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances that we ſhall, upon all Occaſions, ſhew our Readineſs to ſupport your Majeſty, and your Royal Family, againſt the ſecret or avowed Enemies of your Majeſty and your Kingdoms; and, at the Expence of every Thing that can be dear to us, give the utmoſt Proof of our Attachment to the Proteſtant Religion, and our happy Conſtitution.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the Common Seal of our Corporation to be hereunto affixed, this Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury and Gentlemen of the County of Weſtmeath, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To his moſt Excellent Majeſty George the Second, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury and Gentlemen of the County of Weſtmeath, now aſſembled at a General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Mullingar in and for the ſaid County of Weſtmeath, on the Tenth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to Great Britain.

The Account of the daring and wicked Attempt of the Diſturbers of Europe and Enemies of Liberty, to abett a popiſh Pretender, by aſſiſting him in an actual Invaſion of your Majeſty's Dominions, is ſuch an Inſult as we look upon upon with the greateſt Horror and Indignation; being throughly convinced, that all our Religious and Civil Rights can only be preſerved to us, by having the Throne of theſe Kingdoms filled by your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe.

We of this Kingdom in particular, by having ſeverely felt the bloody and cruel Effects of Popery and arbitrary Power, are moſt ſenſible of the invaluable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and gentle Adminiſtration: Animated by theſe grateful Sentiments, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we are, now and at all Times, ready and willing, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, to lay down our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

Turin, Oct. 16. This Court having ordered a ſmall Body of Troops near Exiles to cover that Fort, and to prevent the Siege of it, M. de Lautrec, a French General, was retired, the Cannon had been ſent back to Biancon, and had actually paſſed Mount Genevre. M. de Roſſi, who commanded the Piemonteſe Battalions, in order to obſerve M. de Lautrec, followed him at a Diſtance, and had taken Poſt dear Feneſtrelles, within a very little Diſtance of the French Camp at Seſtrieres. On the 11th inſtant, M. de Roſſi was attacked by near 10,000 Men in three Columns; though he ſtood his Ground ſome Hours againſt the Body he had in Front, yet his Militia and Vaudois having given Way, he was ſoon ſurrounded, and his regular Troops put to Flight. General de Roſſi himſelf was taken Priſoner, together with the Colonel of the Regiment of Nice, and 18 of his Officers. The Loſs amounts to about 500 Men, the reſt ſaved themſelves under the Cannon of Feneſtrelles. The Snow, which is fallen very thick in thoſe Mountains within theſe two or three Days, it is thought will prevent M. de Lautrec's making any Attempt on that Place, Exiles or La Brunette. The Auſtrian and Sardinian Armies continue in the ſame Poſition; the greateſt Part on this Side the Po, oppoſite to Caſal covering our Bridges on that River, and 20 Battalions on the other Side in the Town, which are always at Hand to retire, either if the Waters ſhould increaſe, or the Enemy advance with a ſuperior Force.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE taking into our moſt ſerious Conſideration the juſt and neceſſary Wars, in which we are engaged with the Crown of Spain and the French King, and the unnatural Rebellion begun in one Part of this our Kingdom; and putting our Truſt in Almighty God that he will vouchſafe a ſpecial Bleſſing on our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have reſolved, and do, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Publick Faſt and Humiliation be obſerved throughout that Part of our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, upon Wedneſday the Eighteenth Day of December next; that ſo both we and our People may humble ourſelves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of our Sins; and may, in the moſt devout and ſolemn Manner, ſend our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majeſty, for averting thoſe heavy Judgments, which our manifold Sins and Provocations have moſt juſtly deſerved; and imploring his Bleſſing and Aſſiſtance on our Arms, and for reſtoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Proſperity to us, and our Kingdoms. And we do ſtrictly charge and command, that the ſaid Publick Faſt be reverently and devoutly obſerved by all our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of ſuch Puniſhment, as we may juſtly inflict on all ſuch as contemn and neglect the Performance of ſo religious and neceſſary a Duty. Our Will is therefore, and we charge, that incontinent this our Procl mation ſeen, ye paſs to the Market Croſs of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there in our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance: And our Will and Pleaſure is, That our Solicitor do cauſe printed Copies hereof to be ſent to the Sheriffs of the ſeveral Shires, Stewarts of Stewarties, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom we ordain to ſee the ſame publiſhed; and we appoint them to ſend Doubles hereof to the ſeveral Paroch Kirks within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day abovementioned, the ſame may be publiſhed and read from the Pulpits, immediately after Divine Service.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of November 1745, and in the Nineteenth Year of our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

Whitehall, November 10.

By Letters from the North of the 6th, there is Advice, That that Part of the Rebel Army, which came to Kelſo, continued there till Nine that Morning: Their Numbers were betwixt 3 and 4000. At Ten they began to paſs the Tweed, and continued paſſing till after it was dark. They took the Road to Jedburgh, and by the Motions of the other two Columns, as well as by what they gave out themſelves, they were marching towards Langton for Carliſle. Marſhal Wade was at Newcaſtle upon the 7th, and it was thought would continue there till their Deſigns could be more certainly known; the Horſe under him had been order'd to join the Army at Newcaſtle the Day before. The Pretender's Son arrived at Kelſo upon the 4th at Night; the Party with him is ſaid to conſiſt of the beſt of their Men, the Camerons and Macdonnalds. They had no Cannon, and no more Baggage than what could be carried in 30 Carts and upon 12 Horſes, and one cover'd Waggon with the Pretender's Son's Baggage. All the Cannon and heavy Baggage had been ſent towards Peebles, where the Duke of Perth commands, who is their General in Chief; Lord George Murray acted as Lieutenant-General, Lord Eliko as Colonel of what they call'd the Life-Guards, Lord Kilmarnock as Colonel of Huſſars, and Lord Pitſligo commanded the Angus Horſe. Advices from Berwick of the 7th Inſtant ſay, that that Part of the Rebel Army which took the Route by Peebles, were believed to be by that Time near Carliſle: That the other Part, who were at Kelſo, after having ſtaid two Nights there, marched on the 6th in the Morning towards Jedburgh. Many of the Rebels have deſerted on their March from Edinburgh, and particularly at Kelſo, and many Straglers with their Arms have been ſeized, and delivered by the Country People into the Caſtles of Edinburgh and Stirling, or to the Commanders of his Majeſty's Ships.

Whitehall, November 12.

By Letters from Carliſle dated the 9th inſtant, receiv'd late laſt Night, there is Advice, that Part of the Rebel Army incamped that Evening on a Moor within two Miles of that City.

Whitehall, November 12.

By an Expreſs this Morning from the North, there is an Account, that upon the 9th in the Afternoon, about fifty or ſixty of the Rebels, well mounted, and thought to be Officers, appear'd on a Hill called Stanwix Bank, cloſe by Carliſle; that the Caſtle of Carliſle fired upon them, and that after ſome Time they retreated: That there were Accounts of different Bodies appearing in different Places near Carliſle: That their main Army was at Eccleſeighton, 16 Miles from thence: That they could not get their Artillery and Baggage forwards for Want of Horſes, but that they were collecting all they could get every where, and that it was talked amongſt them, that they were to puſh on Southwards. The whole Militia of the Counties of Cumberland and Weſtmorland were in Garriſon at Carliſle.

London, November 12.

This Day at One o'Clock the Sheriffs of this City, attended by their Officers, went to the Royal Exchange, and ſaw ſeveral treaſonable Papers, ſigned by the Pretender and his Son, burnt there by the Hands of the Common Hangman, according to a Reſolution of the Houſe of Lords and Commons, amidſt the repeated Acclamations of a prodigious Number of People.
